Immigration Policies and Students from Undocumented Families

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 27, 2017
3:00 p.m.- 4:15 P.M. | Hale Hall | MLK Room

How do we identify and integrate immigration status as a form of social difference in our educational spaces? What are the implications of the recent decision to end DACA? Join Dr. Sarah Gallo to discuss her research on undocumented status and schooling as well as to participate in conversations that recognize and incorporate immigration status as a form of social difference in our roles as university community members.

The Office of Diversity and Inclusion Discussion Series on Diversity offers Ohio State faculty, staff and students an opportunity to explore topics impacting diversity on Ohio State's campus. This annual discussion series promotes excellence through diversity while enhancing the educational experience for the Ohio State community.

For questions about access, requests for a sign language interpreter or other accommodations for a disability, please email Ana Brown at brown.5546@osu.edu. Early requests are encouraged; a week will generally allow us to provide seamless access.

Click here to RSVP.

Please RSVP by 5:00 p.m. on September 25, 2017.

Commonly Encountered Dolencias y Remedios (Illnesses/Conditions and Treatments)

Friday, October 6, 2017 | 2:30 pm - 4:00 pm
Hale Hall | Martin Luther King, Jr. Lounge

You are cordially invited to attend the 2017 Clotilde Dent Bowen, MD, Diversity Lecture Series Student Roundtable Discussion with Dr. David Acosta, Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer for the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC), Friday, 6 October, 2017 from 2:30pm - 4:00pm in the Martin Luther King, Jr. Lounge in Hale Hall. Dr. Acosta's Roundtable discussion will focus on "Commonly Encountered Dolencias y Remedios (Illnesses/Conditions & Treatments)". This event is a joint effort between the College of Medicine and ODI.

The learning objectives include:

- Explore the explanatory model of illness
- Identify common home remedies (traditional medicines) and beliefs that might be encountered in providing health care for Latino patients
- Describe common traditional illnesses and their treatments
- Discuss types of traditional healers and the tools they use in healing practices

Please R.S.V.P. to valerie.blackwell-truitt@osumc.edu.

Global Migration Discussion Group for K-12 Teachers

The five area studies centers in the Office of International Affairs at The Ohio State University have collaborated to create the Global Migration Discussion Group for K12 teachers.

In these meetings, we will explore trends in migration in Africa, East Asia, Eastern Europe, Latin America and the Middle East. Each meeting will include a presentation on migration from a regional perspective, pre-assigned readings, and discussion. Teachers are invited to attend as many sessions as they'd like and are eligible to earn a contact hours' certificate for each session attended.

Meetings will be held in Enarson Classroom Building 160, from 10:00am-12:00pm on the following Saturdays:

September 30: Center for Slavic and East European Studies presents:

Resilience in the Face of Exclusion: Irregular Migration on the Closed "Balkan Route" by Kathryn Metz

October 21: Middle East Studies Center presents:

Gendered Narratives of Syrian Migrants by Dr. Isis Nusair (Denison University)

Spring dates TBD

RSVP to Kathryn Metz if you would like to attend.

Study Abroad in Ecuador: Scholarship Opportunity

The Pachaysana Study Abroad Program is happy to announce five $1000 scholarships available for the spring 2018 semester.

- 2 Coming/Breaking Out from the Margins Scholarships - If you identify with a group that is marginalized from power, or if your identity has been marginalized by existing power structures, you can apply for this scholarship.
- 2 Social Justice Ally Scholarships - If you consider that much of your identity/history is related to oppressive power structures but feel passionate about struggling for social justice and ending all forms of hate, then you can apply for this scholarship.
- 1 Public (or under-represented) Institution Scholarships - Students from public institutions, as well as smaller or less affluent private schools, are underrepresented in our program. If you attend one of these institutions, you can apply for this scholarship.

For more information on the program, visit <https://www.pachaysana.org/rehearsing-change>. To apply for the scholarship, students simply need to put a note at the end of their application essay regarding the scholarship(s) for which they consider themselves a candidate. If your essay is completed or turned in, simply write an email to info@pachaysana.org with the same statement.

More information on the program through Ohio State's Office of International Affairs can be found here. The deadline to apply for Spring 2018 is October 1st.
