

Brutus Calavera Coloring Contest 2024

Open to all ages: Printout Competition

Sponsored by the Center for Latin American Studies and The Ohio State Department of Athletics

Help Brutus get ready for Day of the Dead!

Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) is a cultural tradition predominantly celebrated in Mexico and Central America, and recently, by Latinxs in the United States. Before the arrival of the Spaniards, Aztecs engaged in month-long celebrations honoring the dead. Ever evolving, the tradition's contemporary practitioners continue to reshape and redefine this ancient ritual of remembrance. At the heart of the tradition is a joyful celebration of life—both those in the present and those in past.

The calavera is an important element of this celebration, as it playfully imitates scenes of everyday life to remind us not to take life too seriously. They represent death as the great equalizer of life that does not discriminate based on socio-economic hierarchy or other inequalities endured while living.

This coloring contest, open to children, teenagers and adults of all ages, introduces this festivity to those unfamiliar with it and strives to strengthen the relationship between Ohio State, Latin American, and Latinx culture.
