

Global Gallery, Hagerty Hall

EXHIBIT

Identities and Resistance on the Walls of Quito

From an urban context, focusing on popular expressions in Quito: graffiti art and rap. The emphasis is on the presence and artistic production of indigenous groups in Quito who create this work as part of a larger vision of social protest. The exhibit include photographs taken by Andrés over the last two decades and a recording of rap music in several indigenous languages of the Andean region, primarily Kichwa, Quechua and Aymara.

Stencil Graffiti by Stinkfish / Photo by Andrés Ramirez (detail)

Last Walk-In Tours!

What: You are invited to attend one of the last guided tours of the photography exhibition of Andrés Ramírez, award-winning Ecuadorian filmmaker, producer and rapper who visited OSU in November 2019!

When: Mon. 1/13 4:30pm;
Tues. 1/14 2:30pm;
Weds. 1/15 11am; &
Thurs. 1/16 4:30pm

Why: Get to know the photography of Andrés at his first North American exhibition before it's gone!

Who: All community members, undergraduate and graduate students, faculty and staff welcome!

Where: Global Gallery, Hagerty Hall

Tours available in English and Spanish!

Abya Yala
Student Organization

Facebook: Abya Yala – Ohio State

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

All events possible through the generous support of:

Department of Spanish & Portuguese
Center for Latin American Studies
University Libraries in connection with the Kacha
Willaykuna Humanities Collaboration
Department of Linguistics
Department of French and Italian
Center for Languages, Literatures & Cultures
EMIC Student Interest Group for Expressive Culture
QuéPasa Magazine